W.I.N.O.S.® GLOVIE™ GRABS THE MARKET!

BLOWING ROCK, N.C. --- “Now that’s funny! I’ve GOT to have one of those!” are the comments heard from customers over and over again in reaction to seeing the just-released line of GLOVIES™ from W.I.N.O.S.® This hot, new product is taking the market by storm as women (and yes, men) want something new and different in the ever-growing wine and accessories category.

W.I.N.O.S.® will be showcasing all of their products for the first time at the Atlanta Gift Show, July 16th to 20th (Bldg. 3 Temp 5-1703), and the Chicago Market, July 24th to 27th (Temp 8-1000).

With 13 fun colors and over 100 humorous and sassy sayings including holiday designs, the sleek and chic (no strings attached) GLOVIE™ was made for the discerning woman who likes to keep her white wine chilled and her red wine cool. Made of slip-resistant fabric and insulating neoprene, the GLOVIE™ has an exclusive lip cut-out, or “pucker protector,” to keep one’s lipstick on the glass, not on the GLOVIE™. As a bonus, each GLOVIE™ comes with a recipe from the latest recipe book by author Bonnie Jesseph, “W.I.N.O.S. - Women In Need Of Spirits™”.

For special occasions, the GLOVIE™ can be customized for events, business functions or as a promotional product – a great gift that will last for years to come.

The GLOVIE™ is packaged as a single, a double or on a wine glass with the signature W.I.N.O.S.® zebra print packaging. A starter kit consists of 36 individually packaged GLOVIES™ in an attractive wicker basket plus six GLOVIES™ on wine glasses individually packaged in zebra print gift boxes.

Also being introduced in Atlanta and Chicago is the new Chubby GLOVIE™ for larger red wine glasses. The Chubby GLOVIE™ has the same, convenient “pucker protector” as the regular GLOVIE™, but is cut a bit larger.
